

Colonsay Isle.

Harmony by J. C. SCOTT.

Words and Melody by EDITH G. CLARK.

The musical score consists of four staves of music, each with a treble clef and a bass clef. The first staff begins with the lyrics "In the cir - clet of isles ly-ing out to the West, There's". The second staff continues with "none of these gema can com pare... With dear". The third staff begins with "Col - on-say Isle, On whom na - ture has showered, Her". The fourth staff continues with "beau - ties so rich and rare".

REFRAIN.

The refrain starts with "My loved Isle, 'tis to th' that my thoughts ev - er". It then continues with "though I may wan - der by land or by sea 's Col - onsay Isle I call home."